

From Voltage's San Francisco Studio: English Language Game Love and Legends Arrives on Nintendo Switch™ Thursday, February 26th!

Voltage Inc. (Headquarters: Shibuya, Tokyo Acting President: Yuzi Tsutani) has announced a Thursday, February 26th release of Love and Legends for console players. This international release will be available in English only on the Nintendo eShop.

Love and Legends was first released by the company's San Francisco studio as part of the story app Lovestruck: Choose Your Romance. Sadly, service was suspended in 2022, but due to passionate demand from so many fans, we are now releasing a console version.

This fantasy story begins when the protagonist is suddenly struck by lightning on her way home from work one day. She wakes up in another world reminiscent of medieval Europe, and there finds love and adventure among the legendary citizens. Romance a haughty knight commander, a cynical elven hunter, a bubbly wizard, a demon warrior and more, all from the comfort of your own home.

Rewind, save, and load features have been added to the console version to make for a smoother, more enjoyable playing experience. Plus, see the world of Love and Legends in greater detail by playing it on your TV screen.

Plans to port other popular titles from Lovestruck: Choose Your Romance are in the works, so keep an eye out for more!

Love and Legends Story & Character Profiles

The Story

On your way home from work, a sudden bolt of lightning changes everything. You wake up to find yourself in a strange new land... a world reminiscent of medieval Europe?!

Before you can even get your bearings, you are falsely accused of being the reincarnation of the Evil Witch Queen and dragged off to the royal castle. Your pleas of innocence fall on deaf ears. With suspicion hanging over you, you are forced to make a choice: select an enchanting hero – one who looks as if they stepped straight out of a fairy tale - to be your warden and keep watch over you...

Why were you summoned to this world? As you unravel the mysteries binding you here, where will this unexpected love lead?
